MRS. STILLMAN WINS; BABY GUY LEGITIMATE

STILLMAN DENIED DIVORCE, BABY GUY DECLARED HIS SON, FATHER OF MRS. LEEDS' BABY

Banker Loses Every Point in Sensational Suit Against Mother of His Three Children in Finding of Referee Filed With Court To-Day After Action Begun Two Years Ago.

(Special from Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)
POUGHKEEPSIE, Sept. 29.—Referee Daniel J. Gleason filed personally at Carmel to-day his decision in the Stillman divorce action, finding completely in favor of Mrs. Stillman. He held that:

The proof does not show Mrs. Stillman was guilty of adultery with Fred Beauvais.

The infant Guy Stillman is a legitimate child of Stillman and Mrs. Stillman and not the child of Fred Beauvais.

The plaintiff, Stillman, was guilty of adultery with Helen Leeds and has two children by her.

The referee decided there was not sufficient proof to show that Stillman had also associated with two other women known as "Helen" and "Clara."

The complete victory of Mrs. Stillman over her husband brings to a close probably the most bitter fight between husband and wife in the history of New York courts. The decision is sweeping and clear. The web of evidence in which Stillman sought to ensnare his wife has been swept completely into the discard, and not a shadow is left upon her reputation as wife and mother, but to the contrary, reacts upon the banker himself.

Referee Gleason devotes the greater part of his reasoning to the question of the legitimacy of Guy, which he says has been established beyond a reasonable doubt. The misconduct of the plaintiff he also finds precludes him from any relief in the action, while on the other hand the defendant had offered proof to establish the fact of the charges that had been brought against her.

The referee said Stillman's testimony in support of his charges that Mrs. Stillman miscondacted herself with Fred Beauvais, "uncontradicted and unexplained was sufficient to justify him in believing Mrs. Stillman guilty of the charges made against her. A careful examination, however, of all the testimony has shaken my belief in the testimony of the witnesses called in the plaintiff's behalf."

Neither Stillman nor his wife, "Fid" were present when the decision was filed. Mrs. Stillman was reported on a motor trip and Stillman's whereabouts were unknown. John A. Black, guardian of Baby Guy was "very, very happy over the result," and said:

"I'm glad it is all over with, and am naturally most gratified."
He will file immediately notice for confirmation of the referee's decision before Justice Morschauer at Poughkeepsie on Saturday, Oct. 7.

Whether Mrs. Stillman will begin action for a divorce remains to be seen, he said. It is strongly probable, he asserted, but for her to reveal her (Continued on Second Page.)

ENGLAND ORDERS KEMAL TO AT ONCE QUIT NEUTRAL ZONE

Gen. Harington Told to Demand Instant Withdrawal of Turks.

FIRST ORDER DEFIED.

Kemalists Had Hemmed in British Forces at Chanak Without Firing.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The British Government to-day instructed Gen. Harington, at Constantinople, to demand immediate withdrawal of Turkish troops from the neutral zone. This official announcement was made following the receipt of information from Gen. Harington that Kemal had promised to cease his advance in the zone. The leader of the Turkish Nationalists, in his communication to Gen. Harington, also agreed to meet the British Commander-in-Chief in a conference to be held soon, probably Monday.

The Government assured Gen. Harington he would have its complete support in demanding the withdrawal. He was authorized to decide whether to impose a time limit.

The instructions to Gen. Harington came after the morning meeting of the Cabinet at which the Ministers were advised of reports that the Kemalists were in actual contact with the British wired defenses and that at some points they had reached the shores of the Dardanelles. It was agreed that further encroachment would jeopardize the military position and cannot be allowed to continue.

It was unofficially stated that the government had received Kemal's reply to the original ultimatum and regarded it as unsatisfactory and evasive. It was pointed out that Kemal's promise to cease advancing meant nothing, as it was impossible for his troops to advance further without penetrating the British barbed wire or marching into the sea.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 29 (United Press).—The neutral zone today swarmed with Turkish soldiers as Great Britain tried in vain to arrange a conference with Mustafa Kemal, leader of the Nationalists. The British, entrenched at Chanak, are hemmed in by the legions of Kemalists, who are being reinforced hourly. The Turks have overrun and occupied the entire neutral zone on the Asiatic side of the Dardanelles.

Kemalists are under instructions to advance to the British outposts, but to avoid a clash. Before the British lines the Turks march back and forth with arms reversed or with small white flags aloft to assure the British that they have no desire to fight.

The British soldiers have been warned by Gen. Harington to do their utmost to avoid open hostilities, pending a conference with Kemal. In some places in the zone British and Turks mingle freely.

The strongest positions of the Kemalists are in the region of Enez, Sirtepe Hill, Laphad, Bigla and Karabiga. British officers declare there is no longer a doubt that the Turk movements are directed by Kemal, who has his headquarters in the ruins of Smyrna. The maneuvers are carefully planned.

The Turkish infantry is in possession of the entire Chanak area, except a semi-circular section fifteen miles deep around the town of Chanak, which is held by the entrenched British. It was reported here to-day. Masses of Kemalists infantry continued to pour into the neutral zone of the Straits.

SECOND AUTOPSY SHOWS ATTEMPT TO BEHEAD MRS. MILLS

Report Also Discloses That Woman Slain With Pastor Was Shot Three Times.

HER THROAT WAS CUT.

Believed Couple Were Standing in Close Embrace When Shots Were Fired.

(Special From a Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

NEW BRUNSWICK, Sept. 29.—A second autopsy held on the body of Mrs. Eleanor Mills, found murdered with the Rev. Mr. E. W. Hall, Sept. 16, was performed to-day and showed that not only had she been shot three times in the head but that an attempt had been made to cut off her head. The report that her ankle was broken and that the flesh of her arms had been scored with finger nail gouges was proved untrue.

A study of the autopsy report gave the prosecutors to-day grounds for believing that Mrs. Mills and the pastor were standing in a close embrace when he was shot from behind, the bullet passing through the back of his head and coming out of his eye so that it made a punctured wound on her upper lip. Mrs. Mills was perceptibly taller than Mr. Hall.

An even more imaginative explanation was that looking over his shoulder she saw the murderer, pistol in hand, behind Mr. Mills and in terror pressed her face against his just as the shot was fired, and that she was shot twice on the side of the head while holding him up and in the middle of the forehead after they both fell to the ground. The autopsy was performed by Dr. Runkel Hageman of Somerville, representing Somerset County, and Dr. A. E. Smith of New Brunswick, representing Middlesex County. Dr. W. L. Long, County Physician of Somerset, and Dr. E. L. Cronk, City Physician of New Brunswick, who per-

HENRY FORD TELLS HOW HE PLANS TO USE HIS WEALTH

Henry Ford, the richest man in the world, to-day told what he is going to do with all his money. In an interview given the Wall Street Journal, Ford declared he intended to employ his money in industry to provide work for thousands of additional men and to increase the wealth of the country by a larger production. "The Rockefeller and Carnegie distributions are all right," Ford stated, "but I don't believe in that method."

BATTLING SIKI SIGNS CONTRACT FOR BOUT HERE

Tex Rickard Will Select Opponent and Promote Contest in November.

Batling Siki, conquerer of Georges Carpentier, will appear here in a bout the latter part of November. This announcement was made to-day by Tex Rickard, promoter of Madison Square Garden, the "Velodrome and Boyle's Thirty Acres, Jersey City."

Rickard, through M. Heller, manager of Siki, signed the Senegalese Negro to meet any opponent selected by him. The promoter would not mention who had been selected for the Negro's American debut but he stated it would be one of this country's leading light heavyweights.

The financial arrangements were not made public but it is understood Siki has been guaranteed a large sum of money.

The selection of the battleground will not be made public until Siki arrives in this country. If the bout is held in Jersey it will be a no decision affair but Rickard is anxious to promote the contest in New York in which case it will be fifteen rounds to a decision.

Siki will sail for this country the latter part of October and is expected to reach here around Nov. 1. The contest is scheduled for the latter part of November.

LEADERS DECIDE ON SMITH FOR GOVERNOR; HEARST OUT; COLER IN LEAD FOR SENATE

Beaten for the Nomination by Ex-Governor, Publisher Wires His Agents Not to Let His Name Be Placed Before Convention—Delegates to Choose Ticket To-Night.

By Martin Green.
(Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

SYRACUSE, Sept. 29.—Shortly before the Democratic State Convention assembled to-day, an agreement was reached by which Al. Smith will receive the nomination for Governor. Hearst will personally drop out, but will name the candidate for United States Senator. With this complication out of the way, the rest of the ticket will be framed and put through to-night.

The convention adjourned at 1.53 o'clock this afternoon until 7 o'clock this evening after adopting the platform.

The Hearst pussyfoot policy on Prohibition was beaten in the Platform Committee, and Smith's insistence on a plank advocating modification of the Volstead act to permit light wines and beer accepted.

The following statement was made at 1 o'clock this afternoon by William A. De Ford, Mr. Hearst's personal attorney:

"Mr. Joseph A. Moore and myself have just received the following message from Mr. Hearst:

"Please do not allow my name to go before the convention. I certainly will not go on any ticket which, being reactionary, would stultify my record and declaration of principle and which would be a betrayal of genuine democracy."

My nomination for any public office is not important, but it is important that the party declare for Progressive Democratic principles and show the sincerity of that declaration by nominating men who can be trusted to make it effective.

(Signed) W. R. Hearst.

Those who claim to be in the know have the ticket starting in this shape—Smith for Governor, Mayor Lunn of Schenectady for Lieutenant Governor and a Brooklyn man for United States Senator.

The Brooklyn man whose name is being touted is Bird S. Coler.

Convention's First Real Cheers Greet Reading of Plank for Beer

Men and Women Delegates and Spectators Join in Anti-Volstead Demonstration.

SYRACUSE, Sept. 29.—The second session of the Democratic State Convention met at 12.55 o'clock this afternoon.

The Rev. J. J. McCready of Syracuse delivered the invocation.

Mayor William S. Hackett of Albany was elected Permanent Chairman on motion of the Committee on organization, through Mrs. O'Day, its Chairman. Robert J. Powers of Broome was elected Permanent Secretary.

Hackett declared in a brief address that "all signs point to overwhelming Democratic victory this fall," pointing out that many Republican strongholds in the State last fall had elected Democratic tickets.

He demanded reorganization of the State Government and preferred to the Miller programme as "sham reorganizations," made solely for the purpose of political patronage, which have not resulted in any saving to the State.

The platform was presented by Judge Mahoney, of New York, who referred to it as the programme of the "militant, progressive democracy of the State of New York."

Reading of the light wine and beer plank threw the convention into an uproar. Delegates, both men and women, and spectators jumped to their feet shouting and cheering.

The demonstration, the first real one of the convention, lasted two minutes. The name of Alfred E. Smith was greeted with an enthusiastic outbreak when, inclosing the reading of the platform, a paragraph indorsing his previous administration was read.

This was the first time the name of any candidate for any nomination had been mentioned in any but the
